

RtI:B Problem Behavior Categories & Definitions

The following definitions are general descriptions of problem behavior categories. Schools/Districts are responsible for identifying specific behaviors that fall into each category.

MINOR INCIDENTS

Incidents where the disciplinary consequence is provided by the person who witnessed the incident (“Teacher-Managed Incidents”). The purpose of recording minor incidents is to collect information to develop interventions that PREVENT a recurring behavior from happening in the future.

When minor offenses are examined at a school-wide level, they help to identify behaviors that need to be taught and encouraged on a school-wide basis.

Definitions marked with an asterisk (*) are based on SWIS Referral Form Definitions (Todd, Horner, & Tobin, 2010).
